Over sixty men attended this meeting, and yet there were many baseball players of some ability who were not present on account of classes. This great number of candidates bespeaks much for the start of the college nine's baseball practice. Practice, by the way, has been delayed now for over a week, and the men are all becoming very impatient. And if the weather man is kind enough the first practice of the college squad will take place to-morrow afternoon on the college campus. lege campus.

From a list gathered at the meeting yesterday, supporters of the college are feeling very good over the rosy prospects for a winning team. Now that the college has annexed two championship cups this year, the baseball men are determined that nothing shall never the form addition to this.

At the second station there is itoney Wiley, who held down there is Honey Wiley, who held down this job hist year. The rest of the infield will have to be filled with new material, of which there is a plenty. For the outfield jobs, although the entire last year trio is back in college, there is a wealth of new blood that will make the old boys step a mighty lively pace before they will be chosen. Coach Dobson says that there is not a single place on the team that is even half sure to be given to anybody, old or new. He says that he is the original man from Missouri, and it is up to the boys to show him.

WASHINGTON AND LEE COACHES

OFFICIAL RESULTS IN INTERCITY BOWLING TOURNEY

Washington took a good slice of the prize money in the recent intercity bowling tourney, while Richmond did fairly well. Baitimore only captured a small amount, and retershurg stood third in the prize slice. Washington won $150 Richmond, $133; Petershurg, $113, and Baitimore, $16. Grand total, $442.

The Palace, No. 1, Class A team, captured third place in the tourney. Wade and Cook, of this city, took first place in the two-men event, class A, and it was rather a surprise to some of the local bowlers. Rowsey came back strong at the last minute, and captured the high in class A, individual event, rolling 535 pins in his set.

Big Chief Bliley held down all anchors for the high individual, class C event, rolling 53 in his set, while C. H. Cosby and A. M. Smith captured second place in the class B, two-men event.
